

Press Release

The South San Luis Obispo County Sanitation District (SSLOCSD) and Plant Superintendent John Clemons announce that Mr. Clemons will leave his position effective October 13, 2017.

Mr. Clemons said “I have enjoyed the opportunity to serve with the District’s employees, Board and public in the important work of operating the Oceano wastewater treatment plant.”

Rick Sweet, a technical consultant and Mr. Clemons’ current supervisor, said “the District appreciates Mr. Clemons’ service and his passion for the plant, in particular his willingness to make plant operations understandable to those touring the plant. The District wishes him well in his future endeavors.”

By the terms of his separation agreement with the District, Mr. Clemons will receive $150,000 of severance pay and will dismiss, waive and release any and all claims against the District.
